

Cookie Policy

Our website and application uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website and application. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and application and also allows us to improve our products. Any reference to the website includes websites, applications for mobile phones, tablets and any similar devices.

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

We use the following cookies:

- Strictly necessary cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of our website. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our website or make use of our services.
- Analytical or performance cookies. These allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.
- Functionality cookies. These are used to recognise you when you return to our website. This enables us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region, preferred browser or other preferences when using cardakina).
- Targeting cookies. These cookies record your visit to our website, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make our website and the advertising displayed on it more relevant to your interests. We may also share this information with third parties for this purpose.

To deactivate the use of third-party advertising cookies, you may visit our website to manage the use of these types of cookies include link to consent management solution.

You can block cookies by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. However, if you use your browser settings to block all cookies (including essential cookies) you may not be able to access all or parts of our website. Except for essential cookies, all cookies will expire after max. 2 years

This cookie policy may change. You are responsible for ensuring You periodically visit Our website and this cookie policy to check for any changes. We will use our reasonable endeavour to notify You regarding such.

Any changes to this cookie policy will be effective from the date indicated in the notice posted on the website. If you have any questions please contact the Customer Support team at cardakina.com
